

Alcohol and Drug Control Officer (ADCO) Positions:

The Army Reserve/National Guard is creating “Alcohol and Drug Control Officer (ADCO)” positions in each State to manage their alcohol and drug control programs. These positions/openings have been announced this week, and will be contracted through Accenture. The descriptions and particulars of submitting applications can be found here:

<http://careers.accenture.com/us-en/Pages/index.aspx>

“The Alcohol and Drug Control Officer (ADCO) will serve as the Substance Abuse subject matter expert regarding doctrine, policy, and training directly related to substance abuse issues within a specified State or Territory. In this role, the ADCO coordinates and manages the ARNG Substance Abuse Program on the state level.”

Best Regards,

Candice Russell | AOD Research Associate
National Association of State Alcohol and Drug Abuse Directors, Inc. (NASADAD)
1025 Connecticut Avenue NW, Suite 605, Washington, DC 20036
T: 202-293-0090 x 110 | F: 202-293-1250 | E: crussell@nasadad.org